Police say couple used roof scam, computers to defraud Vermilion, Champaign county banks

A Hoopeston couple were released on recognizance bonds Thursday after police charged them with with defrauding Vermilion and Champaign county banks.

Shari Farris, 33, and Kenneth B. Farris Jr., 31, were each charged with theft by deception.

Additionally, Mr. Farris was charged with auto theft, forgery and possession of a controlled substance (crack cocaine).

Mrs. Farris was arrested Tuesday night at the couple's home, said Gary Miller, Vermilion County Sheriff's Department chief investigator. Mr. Farris was arrested Wednesday in Danville, he said.

Miller said the couple "opened false bank accounts under the guise of a roofing company."

At the couple's home, police found computer equipment and paper used to manufacture checks and legal documents, Miller said. When Mr. Farris was

Local man takes top honors in Danville bowling tourney

Kenny McVicker of rural Rossville topped 79 other bowlers in tournament action Sunday at Boulan's Bowl, Danville.

McVicker, one of 26 bowlers in the low side, took that bracket and went on to defeat high side champ Doug Oakes, 182-171.

McVicker was the only local bowler to finish in the money on the low side. High side money winners were Jay Ferdinand, fourth; Doug Wagoner, sixth; Tony Gress, 10th; Dave Carter, 12th and Art Wagoner, 16th.

Next month's tournament will be at Ten Pin Alleys in Hoopeston on Nov. 16 with shifts at 9 and 11 a.m.
